POTTERY CLASSES ON WHIDBEY ISLAND

Classes are designed for beginners and those with previous clay working experience. Learn to make bowls, cups, dishes, vases, and more on the potter's wheel. Handbuilding projects may include dishes, tiles, boxes, sculpture, or wherever your creative impulses may lead . . . Demonstrations, hands-on practice, and lively discussion will give students the foundation to explore the art of working with clay. Glaze exploration & development will be discussed. Classes are held in my studio in Coupeville.
